What to do. For each topic below, tick the hadith you approve as sources the app may quote and cite for that topic (a few per topic is enough: 2 to 4). Edit nothing in the text. If none fits, write "none" and name another hadith ID or a Quran reference (e.g. 112:1-4).

What these are. Candidates in the order the source site lists them within the folders named under each heading. The assistant did not choose, rank or filter them by meaning. Arabic and English are copied exactly as published, with the source's own attribution and grading.

Please also decide. Several narrations mention the Prophet ﷺ and the Companions by name. Quoting them verbatim is not dramatisation, but tell us if any should not be shown to new learners.

Then. Send the ticked IDs back. The team imports exactly those (as unverified), you check each one against its link, and only then are they verified.

Usāmah ibn Zayd. When he (the Muslim man) raised his sword, the idolater said "there is no god but Allah", but he killed him. A man came to the Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) with news of the victory, and he asked him (about the battle) so he informed him of everything including what that man (Usāmah) had done. The Messenger of Allah (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him) summoned him and asked him: "Why did you kill him?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah, He struck many of the Muslims and killed so and so of them –and he named a group. I attacked him and when he saw the sword he said there is no god but Allah." The Messenger of Allah said: "Did you kill him?" Usasmah said: 'Yes.' The Messenger of Allah said: "What will you do with (his statement) there is no god but Allah when it comes on the Day of Judgment?" Usāmah said: "O Messenger of Allah, seek forgiveness for me!" He said: "And what will you do with there is no god but Allah when it comes on the Day of Judgment?" He added nothing, but kept repeating: "What would you do with there is no god but Allah when it comes on the Day of Judgment?"
